News!

Dear Parents/Carers,

It has been lovely to see so many children returning from bouts of illness this week. Sadly, we still have some children and some staff suffering with COVID. I hope all these get well over the half term break and hope to have everybody back on Tuesday 22nd February.

This week, the children have all participated in online safety activities. Some good discussions were had and the children were very sensible and knowledgeable.

This has been one of the most exhausting terms of my teaching career (almost 23 years!), not just for me, but for all staff and children. My heartfelt thanks go to everyone, including parents, who have been so kind, helpful and supportive when trips have been cancelled, assemblies postponed and when staff have been few.

I hope you all manage to rest, relax and enjoy some fun times over the half term break.

Best wishes,

Mrs Bodman-Knight

Excellent discussions in year 4 today and yesterday as part of #SaferInternetDay 🌍 . We explored this year's theme of respect and relationships online and created our own online gaming guide for younger pupils.
